
About John Lee

For over fifteen years John Lee has been fully committed to providing a level of service to his clients that consistently places him at the top of the real estate field. Having sold real estate in Colorado (13 years) and Hawaii (2 years), John has satisfied home buyer's and seller's from coast to coast and beyond.

It is John's focused approach of analysis, communication, perseverance and patience that sets him above his peers. By listening to his clients, then using his extensive knowledge of inventory, financing and contacts, he empowers his clients to make informed, satisfying decisions. Residential Real Estate is one of John's forte's. He is a Certified Residential Specialist (CRS), Graduate Realtor Institute (GRI), Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES) and Internet Professional (e-PRO).

This dynamic experience provided a career objective: To give friendly, knowledgeable, conscientious service to his clients and find them properties that meet both their needs and desires. He believes that by working smart and truly listening to what his clients want, he can satisfy even the most discriminating. It is his goal to provide a rewarding experience for home buyer's and home seller's to help them settle into the wonderful lifestyle Colorful Colorado has to offer.

Real Estate Designations